

Inspiration & Dedication Coventry Care Workers in the Spotlight

Inspiration and dedication to others were at the heart of the newly launched Coventry Registered Managers Care Worker Awards event, which took place on the 3 July 2018.

The purpose of the event was to pay tribute to those individuals who have demonstrated outstanding excellence within their field of work. With over 5,400 care workers across the City, they are hoping this will be the first of many successful celebrations.

Laura Hambridge Chair of the Coventry Registered Managers Network said “All our winners and nominees for awards, make a huge difference to the lives of people they support by their everyday efforts in the workplace. Their hard work and determination is an inspiration. Coventry Registered Managers Network wanted to develop an event that recognises these amazing individuals and the values they demonstrate every day”.

All the nominees and registered managers were invited as guests to attend the Awards event at Coventry City Council House. Clare McKenzie from Skills for Care who help sa well-led, skilled and valued adult social care workforce. was guest speaker and judge for the awards. Sponsors were Farla Medical, Skills for Care and photography by Dean Wainwright Photography.

The Winners

Behind the Scenes Sithwelle Ndlouu of Sovereign House

Nominated by her peers, Sithwelle has demonstrated outstanding values of compassion and empathy despite her own significant adversities. Her commitment to quality care and support is clearly demonstrated by her going that extra mile.

She was thrilled by the Award and was looking forward to being able to phone her family and give them the news.

Going the extra mile Julie Packer of Cordelia Court

Julie with her manager Laura Hambridge. “ A past family member who still visits the home saw the poster and asked if she could nominate Julie, though the resident has now passed away she still wanted to celebrate her amazing work.

“Julie and my mum had a special bond, you could see the care and compassion Julie provided, she also supported me through some of the most difficult days I had”.

Compassion in Care Legita Teupa of Sovereign House

Legita was nominated by a person who uses the service who said that she was “very good, always cheerful and lovely to talk to”.

Legita is a true winner demonstrating excellent values of Dignity and respect and has clearly built a 2 way relationship of trust with Joan

For further details please contact Laura Hambridge Chair of Coventry Registered Managers Network. Email: cordeliacourt@hotmail.co.uk